PLEASE READ: Vendors are “limited” as space allows, with up to four (4) workers per booth included with the application. The completed application (both pages) with appropriate fees attached, will reserve a spot on a “first come, first served basis” as they are received. All food vendors must submit a “general list” above of menu items in order to keep as best we can, from any duplications. All vendors must submit a list of names of workers in their booth prior to the event. ACHS reserves the right to refuse vendors or products as it sees fit. The event is “Rain or Shine”. There are no refunds due to a vendor being a “no-show” or cancelling their appearance at the event. Any changes to a vendor spot must be approved by ACHS and an updated application filed. No tables, chairs, tents, or setup help will be provided by the ACHS. Ice will be available for purchase.

8th Annual Clover Hill Village Wine Festival

Hosted by the Appomattox County Historical Society

Saturday, August 19, 2017, 12pm – 6pm

General Guidelines and Rules of Participation

The Appomattox County Historical Society welcomes you as a participant in its “Annual Clover Hill Village Wine Festival”. We hope that your time with us is enjoyable and profitable for your business. We welcome comments from you that we can use to make this a better festival in each of the coming years. Please feel free to tell us what you think and suggest ideas for improvement.

A few general rules

Items that we cannot allow to be displayed or sold during the festival:

- Yard sale or flea market type items
- Snap pops or any other items containing explosive material
- Air guns, BB guns, pellet guns or working firearms of any kind
- Items that display profanity as deemed offensive by the ACHS Staff
- Alcohol and Drugs other than wine and beer that is allowed pursuant to an ABC license
- Any other item deemed dangerous or offensive by any member of the ACHS Staff

Vendor spaces:

All items that you have for sale or distribution or display must be contained within your vendor space. You may not display or hang any items on or in any of the buildings, fencing, or other displays belonging to Clover Hill Village unless prior approval is obtained from ACHS Staff.

The Legal Stuff:

Permits/Licenses/Insurance Needed:

You are solely responsible for obtaining any permits/licenses/insurance (Health Dept., ABC, etc) needed for the festival. Failure to obtain the proper permits/licenses/insurance needed will prevent you from participating in or at the festival. Copies of all permits/licenses/insurance will be forwarded to the ACHS (448 Adams Mill Lane Appomattox, VA 24522-1112 or AppomattoxReenactment@yahoo.com) at least two (2) weeks prior to the event. Failure to do so will result in you not participating.

Tax collection:

You are solely responsible for any items that you sell and the collections and reporting of any applicable sales or other taxes. ACHS will not collect and report any taxes on your behalf.

Disclaimer:

The Appomattox County Historical Society and Clover Hill Village cannot, and will not, assume any responsibility for any lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed work, material or equipment attended or unattended, before, during or after the festival.

Compliance:

Failure to comply with any of the general guidelines and regulations will result in the ACHS Staff requesting you to either bring your space into compliance, or risk being asked to leave the festival. Any state or local law enforcement or other regulatory agency, will have absolute authority over the governance and operation of this festival and may, at their discretion, take any action to enforce laws for which they are responsible. No refunds will be issued.

Agreement and Waiver

Please read the following statements carefully. To participate in the Clover Hill Village Wine Festival, you must sign and return this agreement, with the appropriate fees, prior to the Wednesday, August 2, 2017 deadline. After that date, all application fees are double and the FINAL DEADLINE, where no applications will be accepted afterwards, is Wednesday, August 16, 2017.

- 1) I have received, understand and comply with the Appomattox County Historical Society General Guidelines and Rules of Participation on the back of this sheet.
- 2) I do hereby waive the Appomattox County Historical Society, its Officers, its Agents, its Assigns, Board of Directors, Members, Committee Members, Volunteers, Sponsors, and Fellow Participants, from any liability due to personal injury, theft, loss or damage to any property that may occur during the Clover Hill Village Wine Festival.
- 3) I agree to allow the Appomattox County Historical Society full use of images and other promotional materials (photographs, video, audio, etc.) taken during the Festival for purposes of promoting the Festival and ACHS this year and in future years.
